Why Homework is Important

Homework has been around for decades. In fact, it's been a part of education for centuries. But the big question is 'Why do we need homework?' answer is here

Homework is only meant to reinforce what is learnt in class, so that kids don't forget what is taught. It teaches the students to be disciplined & responsible.

It provides them with learning opportunities outside the class- room.

It also helps students to manage their time for play & study.

Lastly, it encourages independent learning. In this way Homework plays a significant role in the process of growing up to be responsible adults.

Its easy if you LOVE your homework.

AMAZING FACTS

1 The shadow bird always builds a 3-room nest. The third section is the nursery; the second is a pantry; and in the first, the male parent stands guard against intruders.
2. Chocolate kills dogs! True, chocolate affects a dog's heart and nervous system; a few ounces are enough to kill a small dog.

IIPS Choir honoured

It was a great privilege when the IIPS Choir was given a chance to perform in the Indian Embassy, on the occasion of Republic Day.

The Choir was trained by Mr. Babu (Music teacher) and the song which was sung in the ceremony was composed by Mr. Baig (Gym teacher). Many other teachers also extended their support for the performance of the students.

Wonder of Seven - Class Magazine by VII Graders

The students of class VII - B have achieved the great pinnacle of publishing a hand-made class magazine "FOCUS" with the support and inspiration of their class teacher Mrs. Shareena Aziz.

The 140 paged magazine is an array of beautiful thoughts and creative work contributed by every single student of the class . It is carefully planned and organized into different sections dedicated to different subjects– English, Hindi and so on. All contributions were noteworthy.

The inauguration ceremony was a grand success. The programme was honoured by the presence of the dignitaries which included the committee members : Mr. Termizi and Mr. Senthil , Mr. Azeez – Principal IIPS , Mr. Siddique – Vice –Pricipal, Dr.Khalid , Mr. Raheemuddin and Mrs. Poornima (Supervisors boys / girls) The success of the magazine is attributed to the hard work and dedication of the students and their class teacher.

April 2011

Welcome Note by Principal.....

Dear Readers,
Its been over 20 years since we started living a dream! More than making our students fit enough to hold themselves in a competitive world, we have been the catalyst in developing their imaginations.

This newsletter is an effort made by our students to bring to light the latest news and information of our school.

This issue of ' IIPS CHRONICLE ' brings you a whole lot of interesting potpurri of things put together by the pen-pushing wizards of IIPS.

The Chronicle will knock at your doorsteps bringing fresh news , happenings in IIPS and the hidden talents of our little geniuses.

Dear Readers, be with us and give us your valuable suggestions and support.

Wishing every student good luck as they step onto the threshold of a new academic year!

Principal – Abdul Azeez

Chairman's Words

It is my proud privilege to write for this momentous 'IIPS Chronicle' Newsletter.

'A small beginning doesn't make a small ending.' Let us begin small with higher goals. Begin where we can begin Begin with what we have ... rest of the things will take care of themselves.

If we think , its already late then its never ; but if we make a beginning now , then its forever.

So, it's the great beginning of this Newsletter in IIPS. On behalf of all the MC members , I congratulate and thank the active and passive participants behind this successful newsletter.

I wish you all good luck in advance to celebrate Silver and Golden Jubilee of 'IIPS Chronicle'

Chairman – Shahul Hameed

Editorial.....

Dear Readers , Welcome to the new school year.....

Warm wishes to all the students who are ready to step into the advent of the new academic year with new ideas , dreams and aspirations .

As we look back nostalgically with pride at the progress we have made in 2010, we are delighted to announce yet another milestone the first issue of our in-house newsletter.

'The Chronicle' enters the year 2011 as the harbinger of all our hopes, while also commemorating a long inning of individual development and communication with all our readers.

'The IIPS Chronicle' is an attempt to showcase the efforts of our talented children who are well on their way of blossoming into responsible citizens. So , contribute and be a part of the team.

Lets touch the new heights !

Interesting Articles , Poems , Puzzles, Riddles , Jokes , Suggestions and other Informative things are invited from all students of IIPS. Please send your contributions with name & class exclusively to: iipschronicle@gmail.com.

GANDHI (MOVIE)

In its theatrical release, the 1982 biopic Gandhi won eight Academy Awards, including Best Picture, Best Actor (Ben Kingsley), Best Director (Richard Attenborough), and Best Adapted Screenplay (John Briley). The film begins with Gandhi's assassination on 30 January 1948, and his funeral. Gandhi After an evening prayer, an elderly Gandhi is helped out for his evening walk to meet a large number of greeters and admirers.

One of these visitors— Nathuram Godse shoots him point blank in the chest. Gandhi exclaims, "Oh, God!" ("HēY Ram!" historically), and then falls dead. Gandhi is a sweeping epic that covers 55 years in the life of the great Indian leader and employs 300,000 extras in the scene reenacting the title character's funeral. In playing the title role, Ben Kingsley is uncanny in his ability to evoke the memory of the real-life Gandhi. In early 1915 the 45-year-old Gandhi returned to British-ruled India and joined others in seeking home rule. Two of those who worked with Gandhi were Nehru, who later became India's first prime minister, and Jinnah, who later became first governor-general of Pakistan. As U.S. Secretary of State George C. Marshall said, "Mahatma Gandhi has become the spokesman for the conscience of all mankind.

He was a man who made humility and simple truth more powerful than Empires." Kingsley's great performance in the title role, succeeds brilliantly in capturing Marshall's notion, and that is more than enough for me to recommend you to watch, one of the great stories of modern times.

So dear readers, what are u waiting for, hurry up!! And get the DVD and watch it.....

Colourful Kindergarten

Sports Day / Pink day / Brown day / Purple day and much more.....

The little buds of kindergarten have bloomed into beautiful flowers all through 2010-2011.

The kids celebrated many colourful days which made them look like pretty flowers in the garden.

They also displayed their sporty side and showed their winning streak by participating actively in all games organized on the sports day.

The year was very fruitful and exciting for all of them. (Mrs. Rumla –Supervisor)

Let's all be masters of our mouths, Not the slaves of our words.'

Once upon a time an old man spread rumors that his neighbor was a thief. As a result, the young man was arrested. Days later the young man was proven innocent. After been released he sued the old man for wrongly accusing him. In court the old man told the Judge: 'They were just comments, didn't harm anyone.'

The judge, before passing sentence on the case, told the old man: 'Write all the things you said about him on a piece of paper. Tear them up and on the way home, throw them out. Tomorrow, come back to hear the sentence.'

The next day, the judge told the old man: 'Before hearing the sentence, you will have to go out and gather all the pieces of paper that you threw out yesterday.'

The old man said: 'I can't do that! The wind spread them and I don't know where to find them.'

The judge then replied: 'The same way, simple comments may destroy the honour of a man to such an extent that one is not able to fix it. "If you can't speak well of someone, rather don't say anything"'

FarewellByes are not always good byes

The XII graders were bid a fond goodbye by the XI graders as they were soon leaving the school in search of their destination. The XI graders organized a special fare-well in the gym room, where games were played and the twelfth graders gave their thanksgiving speeches.

The party was in full swing. Students as well as teachers were in a joyous mood. Winners of the games were awarded prizes.

All the teachers present in the party were given roses as a mark of love and reverence from the students. It was a memorable event for one and all.

Book Review

Freedom at Midnight (1975) is a book by Larry Collins and Dominique Lapierre. It describes the events in the Indian Independent Movement in 1947-48, beginning with the appointment of Lord Mountbatten of Burma as the last viceroy of British India ending with the death and funeral of Mahatma Gandhi.

The book gives a detailed account of the last year of British India, the princely states' reactions to independence (including descriptions of the Indian princes' colorful and extravagant lifestyles), the partition of India and Pakistan on religious grounds, and the bloodshed that followed.

It also covers in detail the events leading to the assassination of Mahatma Gandhi, as well as the life and motives of British-educated Jawaharlal Nehru and Pakistani leader Muhammad Ali Jinnah, a Muslim. The book is a result of deeply scanned and researched events, which often are left out by other historians.
